FIRST READING

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

    `In the last days it will be, God declares,
    that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
        and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
    and your young men shall see visions,
        and your old men shall dream dreams.

    Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
        in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
        and they shall prophesy.

    And I will show portents in the heaven above
        and signs on the earth below,
        blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

    The sun shall be turned to darkness
        and the moon to blood,
        before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

    Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

PSALM 104:25-35, 37

Please read responsively by half verse.

25 O LORD, how manifold are your works! *

in wisdom you have made them all;
    the earth is full of your creatures.

26 Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, * creatures both small and great.

27 There move the ships,
    and there is that Leviathan, *
    which you have made for the sport of it.

28 All of them look to you *
    to give them their food in due season.

29 You give it to them; they gather it; *
    you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

30 You hide your face, and they are terrified; *

you take away their breath,
    and they die and return to their dust.

31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
    and so you renew the face of the earth.

32 May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
    may the LORD rejoice in all his works.

33 He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
    he touches the mountains and they smoke.

34 I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
    I will praise my God while I have my being.

35 May these words of mine please him; *
    I will rejoice in the LORD.

37 Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
    Hallelujah!

SECOND READING*Romans 8:22-27

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Celebrant       The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People           Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On this Pentecost Sunday, please reverently attend to the Gospel as it is read in several different languages.

Jesus said to his disciples, “When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

“I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Ho - san - na in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the highest.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in you Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of

THE SUNDAY BANNER – May 19, 2024

- ❖ Wednesday Weavings – St. George's Wednesday Weavings adult discussion group gathers this week on May 22, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. at the home of John and Frances Rickard. We start the evening with a shared salad bar meal, then discuss a reading from our book, A Journey with Luke, and conclude with the liturgy of Compline. Please contact Frances Rickard at fajrickard@gmail.com for a copy of the reading or more information. Hope to see you there!
- ❖ Calling all Graduating Seniors & Families – Please reach out to the office and let us know if you or a loved one are graduating from high school this May so that the church can celebrate our graduating seniors later this month.
- ❖ Eucharistic Visitors Needed—we are looking for volunteers to take the Sunday's Eucharist to members of St. George's who are ill and infirm and can't make it to the service. Please see the Rev. Dr. Susan Dolan-Henderson to volunteer or learn more.
- ❖ Yellow Envelope Drive - Many of our valuable Outreach projects do not have an associated fund-raising event. These are events like the bags for SAFE, assistance with the HELPS mission trip to Guatemala, and various hospitality events at the Court. Outreach holds an annual “envelope” drive to have money on hand for these projects. This year's events will take place during May. Yellow envelopes will be available in the pews, and you will also be able to donate online on the yellow envelope tile on the website. Checks are also welcome, be sure to put Outreach in the memo line. If you have questions, please call or text us: Alice (512-923-1143) or Sarah (412-569-3081)
- ❖ Covered in Prayer - The Prayer Shawl Ministry has shawls available for parishioners or close friends who are suffering from grief, trauma, bereavement, or serious illness. The shawl is a handmade gift of love, compassion, and prayer which envelopes the wearer both physically and spiritually, in prayer and celebration, in joy and sorrow. Our shawls have been made with love by members of our congregation and are available on request by calling the church office at 512.454.2523 or Sarah Campbell at 512.569.3081. We are always glad to find workers in yarn, either knitters or crocheters. If you are interested in this ministry, join us at the informal coffee hour table or call Sarah for more information. We can provide yarn and pattern suggestions.
